Tara A. Fantauzzi, Professional Genealogist

Summary of Research Results:

Two hours and thirty minutes of correspondence time was applied submitting requests to obtain ten documents from the New York City Municipal Archives. Fifteen hours and thirty minutes hours of research time was applied completing a digital collections survey to learn more about fifteen subjects of focus. Client is encouraged to review the detailed research log in the Document Appendix to review a table that outlines the subjects of this survey.

Overall, the research survey and correspondence work yielded thirty-six positive and two possibly positive results as well as numerous negative findings. The positive findings included a combination of Italian vital records as well as U.S. census, vital, naturalization records, and record index entries related to our subjects.

Every document that was obtained was analyzed and a summary of your research results can be found below. Images of all the records can be downloaded from your Customer Dashboard at www.capitalgenealogy.com/laura-barker. Birth Date:	abt 1850
Age:	23 1/12
Gender:	Male
Ethnicity/ Nationality:	English
Place of Origin:	England
Port of Departure:	Liverpool, England
Destination:	United States of America
Port of Arrival:	New York, New York
Ship Name:	City of New York
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• This record was obtained because on the naturalization paperwork of our subject from 1908 it reported he arrived at the Port of New York on or around the 1st of June 1873 from the Port of Liverpool;• The naturalization paperwork reported he arrived on the S.S. Cuba, but no ship of that name was found to have arrived at the Port of New York on or about the 1st of June 1873;• It may be possible the ship name was misreported on the naturalization record for our subject;• On the ship passenger list it seems likely that our subject traveled with an older married woman Margaret Cregan, born circa 1817 and another man named John Cregan, whose age is not clear
